A board's first responsibility is to hold its CEO accountable and, when necessary, make a change. We believe the Ethan Allen Board has failed on both counts.

The current CEO has been with the Company for 38 years, and the Company's "succession plan" only came to be when pressured by our campaign. The Board has a troubling track record of rewarding leadership while results and shareholder value decline, and lacks the depth of home category and digital expertise a modern retailer requires.

Continuity can be valuable, but we believe at Ethan Allen it has become a liability. Watch Chapter 3, 38 Years of the Same Leadership, below, and explore the full video series at <https://lnkd.in/dvfjESmw>.

The same CEO for 38 years. A Board unwilling to push back.

$ETD's Board continues to reward leadership as results and shareholder value decline, and cannot be trusted to select the next CEO.

I'm proud to be part of the slate of board director nominees that has received the full support of independent proxy advisory firm Egan-Jones.

We are committed to bringing our collective experience across retail, home furnishings, and digital commerce to help renew this iconic American brand.

I encourage Ethan Allen shareholders to follow the recommendation of independent proxy advisory firm Egan-Jones and vote FOR all five of our nominees.

Independent proxy advisory firm Egan-Jones Proxy Services has recommended that Ethan Allen shareholders vote "FOR" ALL FIVE of Doug Bergeron's director nominees on the WHITE universal proxy card, and "WITHHOLD" votes from all five incumbent directors.

In making its recommendation, Egan-Jones cited years of declining revenue and earnings, a track record of failed execution, and an incumbent Board that has managed Ethan Allen for cash rather than growth. It also highlighted our nominees' experience across modern retail, home furnishings, digital commerce, and brand revitalization, and our credible plan to transition leadership and drive shareholder value.
